

Exhibit's number: _____

Judge's number _____

Solo Duo

Title: _____

- Categories: Biological and health sciences Engineering, computer science and robotics application
 Social sciences and social networks Pure sciences
 Environment and ecosystems

Exhibitor name(s): _____

SCIENTIFIC VALUE (60%)

IDENTIFYING THE PROBLEM (MAXIMUM OF 12 POINTS)

maximum score / score given

The principles in play are well understood	0 - 4
The problem is well defined.....	0 - 3
Information is well researched and limitations are identified	0 - 3
Objectives are set.....	0 - 2

DESIGN (MAXIMUM OF 10 POINTS)

The schematics are well made	0 - 4
The solutions are optimal	0 - 4
Appearance (prototype fit and finish, ruggedness and craftsmanship	0 - 2

ANALYSIS OF THE PRODUCT (MAXIMUM OF 25 POINTS)

The explanations are consistent.....	0 - 7
The performance is well demonstrated and functionality.	0 - 7
The solution is innovative	0 - 6
The evaluation criteria are relevant	0 - 5

SUMMARY (MAXIMUM OF 13 POINTS)

Possible uses (applications are explained)	0 - 4
Recommendations, improvements and possible follow-ups are suggested	0 - 4
The scope of the solution is consistent with the initial problem complexity	0 - 5

SCIENTIFIC VALUE section total _____ / 60

COMMUNICATION (40%)

EXHIBIT ACTIVITIES (MAXIMUM OF 14 POINTS)

maximum score / score given

Interaction with the audience and time management (the exhibitor is able to incite audience interest and participation, to evaluate understanding, to respond adequately to questions and to respect the time allotted for project presentation).....	0 - 6
The presentation is dynamic (enthusiasm and presence)	0 - 5
The proper terms are used and the subject matter is well popularized	0 - 3

VISUAL PRESENTATION (MAXIMUM OF 14 POINTS)

Developing an attractive, original and appropriate presentation for animation and understanding	0 - 7
The visual aids are clearly laid out (they are readable, and presented in an orderly fashion, facilitating the public's understanding of the demonstration)	0 - 5
The written language and terminology used are of high quality	0 - 2

WRITTEN REPORT AND INTELLECTUAL INTEGRITY (MAXIMUM OF 12 POINTS)

Content (title page, introduction, results and analysis, conclusion)	0 - 6
General presentation (quality of language, neatness and easy-to-read text)	0 - 2
The various component are included — bibliography (bibliography in accordance with sources consulted for the project).....	0 - 4

COMMUNICATION section total _____ / 40

Judge's number : _____ Date : _____

GRAND TOTAL _____ / 100

Judge's name _____ Judge's signature _____

Reserved : _____